

UTR1.81 - THE H. BREWSTER JONES PRIZE

Whereas a sum of approximately $490 has been paid to the University by members of the S.A. Guild of Composers for the purpose of founding with the income thereof a prize in memory of the late H. Brewster Jones, former South Australian musician and composer, the following rules are hereby made:

1. There shall be a prize to be called 'The H. Brewster Jones Prize'.
2. The prize may be awarded annually to an undergraduate student of the Elder Conservatorium studying composition.
3. The prize shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Director of the Elder Conservatorium.
4. The normal annual value of the prize shall be not less than $350.
5. If in the opinion of the Director of the Elder Conservatorium, no candidate submits a composition worthy of the award, the prize shall lapse for that year and the value of the prize be increased in the following year or years.
6. These rules may be varied from time to time, but the title and the general purpose of the prize shall not be changed.
