

THE DR RUBY DAVY PRIZE FOR COMPOSITION

Rules

In 1954, Dr Ruby Davy bequeathed £300 to the University to found a prize for the composition of music, in memory of her late mother, Louisa Jane Davy.

The following rules now apply:-

1. There shall be an annual prize called 'The Dr Ruby Davy Prize'.
2. The value of the prize shall be $900 or such other amount as determined by the Director of the Elder Conservatorium provided that the value does not exceed the annual income distribution available from the Endowment Fund.
3. The prize shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Director of the Elder Conservatorium and shall be based on the results of the Composition courses in the undergraduate degree.
4. If, in the opinion of the Director of the Elder Conservatorium, no candidate is worthy of the award, the prize shall lapse for that year and the value of the prize for that year shall be added to the capital sum of the Endowment Fund.
5. The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.
