

THE NATALIA DAVIES PRIZE

Background

In 1951, Miss Amylis I Laffer gave £400 the University to perpetuate the memory of Miss Natalia Davies, who was for more than twenty years a teacher of outstanding merit in the Education Department of South Australia.

Rules

1. There shall be an annual prize called 'The Natalia Davies Prize'.
2. The prize shall a book voucher to the value of $100, unless determined otherwise by the Faculty.
3. The prize shall be awarded to the candidate who shall be deemed by the examiners to be the most meritorious student in first-year history, provided that the candidate has not previously completed a year's course of study or work at a university.
4. If, in any particular year, the examiners deem that two or more candidates are of equal merit, the prize shall be divided equally amongst the candidates.
5. If, in any particular year, the examiners consider that no candidate is suitable for the prize, then no award shall be made.
6. These rules may be altered from time to time by the Faculty, but the title and purpose of the prize shall not be altered.
