

THE SOCIOLOGY PRIZES

Rules

The School of Social Sciences has established the following prizes within their Department of Sociology, Criminology and Gender Studies to award students undertaking studies in the field of Sociology.

The following Rules now apply:-

The following group of prizes shall be called the “The Sociology Prizes”.

Value

The prize shall comprise a medal for each prize.

First Year Prize in Sociology: The Most Outstanding Sociology Student Level I

Title

The first year prize shall be called the “The Most Outstanding Sociology Student Level I.”

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Prize, candidates must be undertaking all first year Sociology (SOCl) subjects in the year for which the Prize is awarded.

Selection of Candidate

The Course Conveners shall award the prize to the candidate who achieves the highest average marks across first year Sociology (SOCl) courses.

If there is no candidate of sufficient merit in any given year then the Prize will not be awarded in that year.

If there is more than one candidate of equal merit, then multiple prizes may be awarded.

Variations

The University may vary the Rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.

Second Year Prize in Sociology: The Most Outstanding Sociology Student Level II

Title

The second year prize shall be called the “The Most Outstanding Sociology Student Level II.”

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Prize, candidates must be undertaking all second year Sociology (SOCl) subjects in the year for which the Prize is awarded.

Selection of Candidate

The Course Conveners shall award the prize to the candidate who achieves the highest average marks across second year Sociology (SOCl) courses.

If there is no candidate of sufficient merit in any given year then the Prize will not be awarded in that year.

If there is more than one candidate of equal merit, then multiple prizes may be awarded.

Variations

The University may vary the Rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.

Third Year Prize in Sociology: The Most Outstanding Sociology Student Level III

Title

The third year prize shall be called the “The Most Outstanding Sociology Student Level III.”

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Prize, candidates must be enrolled in the Bachelor of Sociology program or Sociology Major sequence and undertaking the level three Sociological Research project in the year for which the Prize is awarded.

Selection of Candidate

The Program Coordinator for the Bachelor of Sociology shall award the prize to the candidate who achieves the highest marks in the level three Sociological Research project course.

If there is no candidate of sufficient merit in any given year then the Prize will not be awarded in that year.

If there is more than one candidate of equal merit, then multiple prizes may be awarded.

Variations

The University may vary the Rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.

Honours Prize in Sociology: The Most Outstanding Honours Student in Sociology

Title

The Honours prize shall be called the “The Most Outstanding Honours Student in Sociology.”

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Prize, candidates must be enrolled in the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Sociology program and undertaking all the honours level Sociology (SOCL) courses in the year for which the prize is being awarded.

Selection of Candidate

The Head of Department shall award the prize to the candidate who achieves the highest average marks in the honours level Sociology courses.

If there is no candidate of sufficient merit in any given year then the Prize will not be awarded in that year.

If there is more than one candidate of equal merit, then multiple prizes may be awarded.

Variations

The University may vary the Rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.