

MAKE AN IMPACT AT THE START OF YOUR ECONOMICS CAREER

ABOUT US

Join us at the e61 Institute and help shape Australia's policy landscape! We are a not-for-profit economic research institute tackling the nation's most pressing economic and social challenges. We're seeking passionate economists eager to harness big data and cutting-edge statistical techniques to address critical questions surrounding housing, social policy, education, structural policy and more.

Our graduate, pre-doctorate and internship programs will hone your research, problem solving and communication skills. If you're passionate about making a tangible impact on public policy, apply now to embark on this exciting journey with us at e61.

OUR OPPORTUNITIES

PRE-DOCTORATES & GRADUATES

- Applications now open!
- Applications close: 5 April 2024

Our pre-doctorate and graduate program is targeted at economics Honours graduates who are interested in a career in economic research.

You will be doing impactful research from day one and have the opportunity to influence the policy debate through communicating your research to policymakers, the media and academics.

WINTER AND SUMMER INTERNSHIPS

- Winter – applications now open and close 22 March 2024
- Summer – applications open around May 2024

Our internship program is a great opportunity for high-achieving penultimate-year students intending on pursuing economics Honours to get a taste of a career in economic policy research.

Our flexible program offers a chance to undertake a supervised research project using data to answer an important policy question.
